

Jay Pritzker Academy

Job Announcement

www.jpa.org.kh

Jay Pritzker Academy (JPA) is a registered international NGO. Our mission is to provide accessible, high quality education to talented and motivated children in Siem Reap province, equipping them with the knowledge, skills and language to succeed locally and globally. JPA is seeking passionate and motivated candidates to apply for a High School English teaching position, delivering English Literature and Language classes to our exceptional students.

Job Title: High School English Teacher

Start Date: August 2026

Overview: Teaching High School English at the beautiful JPA Campus in Siem Reap province.

Responsibilities

- Teach English to high school students, with opportunities to teach within the AP framework.
- Support students' academic and personal development in a positive manner.
- Develop curriculum content and resources.
- Prepare daily lesson plans and quarterly outlines.
- Assess and evaluate student knowledge and skills.
- Monitor and report student progress.
- Undertake continuing professional development.

Preferred Requirements

- Hold a teaching qualification and/or relevant degree in English, education or related field.
- Experience in working with high performing students in an international school setting.
- Demonstrable ability to support students in achieving outstanding academic results.
- Hardworking, honest and highly motivated.
- Strong interpersonal skills and able to communicate well with children, parents and colleagues.

Benefits

- Salary based on experience and qualifications.
- Comprehensive health insurance coverage.
- Relocation allowance.
- Annual return flights to home country.
- Professional development in a school with a proven track record of delivering outstanding education.
- Working 5 days per week with over 60 days paid holiday and leave per year.

To apply, please send a CV and cover letter to careers@jpa.org.kh. Only applicants invited to interview will be contacted.

Closing date: Ongoing.